Natural and scenic spots

Reggello
Vallombrosa, Arboreto Sperimentale, Foresta di Sant'Antonio and Balze del Valdarno: woodlands, monumental trees and landscapes sculpted by time.

Signa
Parco dei Renai and viewpoints: water, green spaces and relaxation amidst the river landscape and unobstructed views towards Florence, Prato and Pistoia.

Fiesole
Paesaggi Plurali and viewpoints: hills, the historic centre and unobstructed views from which to see Florence from new perspectives.

Bagno a Ripoli
Gentle hills and sweeping views, such as those from the Incontro and Apparita: trails and panoramic views set amidst nature, parish churches and the Florentine countryside

Figline e Incisa
A landscape that changes from the banks of the Arno to the Chianti mountains, passing through gentle hills

Campi Bisenzio
The plain, criss-crossed by cycle paths and wetlands of great natural interest

Firenze and Scandicci
Bellosguardo and the hillside trails offer a chance to experience Florence in the open air, amidst greenery and panoramic viewpoints.

Pelago, Londa, Pontassieve, Rufina
The Rufina stream, routes between the Arno and Sieve rivers, and itineraries through the Valdisieve region wind their way through the landscape, taking in waterways, woods, rural scenery and the hills of a National Park

Impruneta
Galleria Filtrante: a journey beneath the village, where water, stone and memory reveal the hidden side of the area.

Calenzano
Calvana, Travalle, Parco del Neto and Cammini dell'Acqua: landscapes of hills, parks, river areas and nature to be savoured at a leisurely pace.

Lastra a Signa
Parco Fluviale di Là d'Arno and Villa Bellosguardo: from the river to the historic garden, two places to stop, stroll and enjoy the scenery.

Rignano sull'Arno
An area where you can walk amongst the hills and ancient parish churches.

Sesto Fiorentino
Routes across La Piana and the hills of Monte Morello, for hiking and cycling.

Vaglia
Climbing to the summit of Monte Senario offers a 360° panoramic view taking in the entire Mugello valley and the Tuscan-Emilian Apennines
